

Phenomblue will be Accepting Applications for Summer Interns

Phenomblue is an interactive brand experience agency focused on designing and developing engaging brand experiences. Phenomblue consistently pushes the boundaries of technology and interaction creating an environment for improvisation and creativity. Phenomblue challenges the constraints of the traditional digital advertising mindset. We make deeper connections with customers and create experiences that leave lasting impressions to synchronize the takeaways with the core values of your audience. The industry labels your customers "consumers", but we create advocates.

Phenomblue will offer six 2011 summer internships.
